NORTH GREENBUSH MAN INDICTED FOR MURDER

Rensselaer County District Attorney Joel E. Abelove announced today that Joseph M. Vandenburg, age 28, was arraigned today on one count of Murder in the Second Degree, a class A-I felony, and one Count of Criminal Possession of a Weapon in the Third Degree, a class C felony, in Rensselaer County Court, in connection with the stabbing death of William Chamberlain, on December 17, 2015.

Vandenburg, who is currently serving a sentence in state prison on a parole violation, was arraigned by Hon. Debra J. Young. The court assigned the Rensselaer County Public Defender to represent the defendant, adjourned the case for motions, and set no bail.

“Our deepest condolences go out to Mr. Chamberlain’s family, who has endured an unspeakable tragedy. The North Greenbush Police Department and the New York State Police have worked tirelessly to assist my office in bringing this indictment.”
