RENSSELAER COUNTY

from Gilded to GREATNESS

The HBO series "The Gilded Age" includes many scenes shot in Rensselaer County.

Troy Music Hall

30 2nd St, Troy, NY 12180

www.troymusichall.org | (518) 273-0038

The Troy Saving Bank Music Hall has been a cultural and entertainment center in Troy and Rensselaer County since opening in 1875. The Music Hall reflected Troy's prominence in industry and commerce. The Troy Music Hall has been featured in the HBO series "The Gilded Age".

Rensselaer County Courthouse

80 Second Street Troy, NY 12180

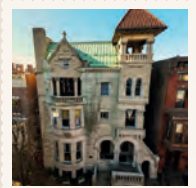

The Rensselaer County Courthouse has been a landmark of downtown Troy and Rensselaer County since construction was completed during the Gilded Age in 1898. The Rensselaer County Courthouse has been featured in the HBO series "The Gilded Age".

John Paine Mansion "The Castle"

49 Second St., Troy, NY 12180

www.painecastle.com

A prime example of Gilded Age opulence, The Castle was constructed in 1896 at a cost comparable to $25 million in today's dollars and was called "The Grandest House in Troy". The Castle has been featured in the HBO series "The Gilded Age".

Hart-Cluett House – Rensselaer County Historical Society

57 2nd St, Troy, NY 12180

www.hartcluett.org | (518) 272-7232

Hart-Cluett House has been a prominent feature of downtown Troy since it was built in 1827. Today, the Hart-Cluett Museum holds the largest collection of archives, records, historic documents and materials in Rensselaer County. The Hart-Cluett Museum has been featured in the HBO series "The Gilded Age".

Washington Park Neighborhood (Russell Sage Campus)

The Washington Park Neighborhood is a Gilded Age treasure, featuring stately row houses that were the homes of some of the most prominent and elegant in Troy society at the time. The homes surround Washington Park, constructed in 1840 and one of only two privately-owned parks in New York State. The Washington Park Neighborhood has been featured in the HBO series "The Gilded Age".

Troy Library

100 Second St, Troy, NY 12180

www.thetroylibrary.org | (518) 274-7071

The Troy Public Library is another outstanding example of Gilded Age affluence, having been completed in 1897 to succeed other library buildings and continue the mission of providing education and enlightenment to Troy. The Troy Public Library is featured in the HBO series "The Gilded Age".

Herman Melville House

2 114th St, Troy, NY 12182

www.lansingburghhistoricalsociety.org | (518) 235-3501

Herman Melville was one of the first literary giants in America, penning classics including "Moby Dick". Melville called Rensselaer County home, residing in Lansingburgh for nine years just before the release of his tale about the fabled white whale. The house he called home from 1838 to 1847 at 2 114th Street looks out at the Hudson River and is now the Lansingburgh Historical Society.

Crailo State Historic Site

9 1/2 Riverside Ave, Rensselaer, NY 12144

www.parks.ny.gov/historic-sites | (518) 463-8738

Crailo was built in the early 18th century by Hendrick Van Rensselaer, grandson of the First Patroon. Hendrick died in 1740 and his eldest son, Johannes, inherited the property. Crailo today tells the story of the early Dutch inhabitants of the upper Hudson Valley through exhibits highlighting archeological finds from the Albany Fort Orange excavations, and holds special programs, and guided tours of the museum.

Oakwood Cemetery

50 101st St, Troy, NY 12180

www.oakwoodcemetery.org | (518) 272-7520

Oakwood Cemetery is the final resting place of a legendary symbol of American freedom, Samuel "Uncle Sam" Wilson. The cemetery offers a panoramic view of Troy and surrounding areas, and has been featured in the HBO series "The Gilded Age".

Monument Square

Located just north of the Troy Music Hall, Monument Square in Troy is anchored by the 50-foot Soldiers and Sailors Monument, which pays tribute to the Rensselaer County residents who fought in the Revolutionary War of 1812 and the Civil War. Monument Square is featured in the HBO series "The Gilded Age".
